Dear David Mack:

We have received your request for a copy of your Equifax credit report and are looking forward to assisting you.

At this time our records indicate that you are not eligible for a free copy of your credit file. The standard charge for a disclosure is $11.50. This price may vary based on your state fee. If you have a major credit card, you may use our automated ordering system at 1-800-685-1111.

You are entitled to a free copy of your credit report if: you have ever been denied credit, insurance, change in credit limit, or other credit-based benefit within the last 60 days; you have recently placed an initial 90-day fraud alert on the file (one free); you have recently placed an extended seven-year alert (two free within 12 months).

You may be entitled to additional free credit files based on other federal legislation. To check your eligibility, visit www.annualcreditreport.com.

Several states have passed laws entitling the residents to receive free copies of their credit file in addition to the Annual Free copy which is requested through the Central Source as well as through Equifax. A reasonable processing fee (currently $11.50) may be charged, with the exception of the following states which have mandated adjustable fees.

Note: If an individual states law varies but does not conflict with the federal law (FCRA), then the state law prevails.
